Christian Education

This Week: Today's story, Everybody brings Noodles, connects with the message from today's Hebrews reading about the importance of gathering in community.

Next Sunday, November 21: Bishop Lesson.

Bottles and T-shirts

In the e-Traveler, I requested empty plastic bottles and old t-shirts. I am still hoping to get some t-shirts (kid size M-XL and adult sizes XS-L). I have plenty of bottles—thank you! —Marion

The Bishop is Coming!

We are delighted to be welcoming Bishop Craig W. Loya to St. Christopher's next Sunday, November 21st. This is his first visit to our parish since he was consecrated in June of 2020. Bishop Loya will preach and celebrate at both services, and also Receive several persons into the Episcopal Church at the 10:30 service. Between services, we will have a chance to greet Bishop Loya and get to know him better in an "Ask the Bishop" forum. If you have questions for the Bishop, please send them to Fr. Randy or the church office, so they can be forwarded to the Bishop in advance.

Hearts and Hands

Hearts and Hands group will meet on Thursday, November 18th to fill grab bags for Hope Lodge. No coffee following, this time., Thank you for all you do for our community!

COVID-19 protocols in transition

- Masks are REQUIRED for worship service attendees.
- Communion will continue to be of bread only.
- Congregational singing only when masked.
- Choir and special music may be offered during indoor worship.

God Has Work for Us to Do

Thank you to the 76 faith family households who have so far pledged to the 2022 God Has Work For Us To Do appeal! We hope to have 100 percent faith family household participation by Thanksgiving. Misplaced your pledge form? Please call Ruth at 651-633-4589 or email her at office@stchristophers-mn.org at your earliest convenience, and she can help you! Thank you for all you do for our faith family!
